HAR TLAGUE IN HONGKONG. To all appearances the plague retains its now being prosocuted and calling upon hold on the Collins. One unsatisfactory feature of the disease is its spread throughout the city, names cropping up in the most unexpected places. The application for an addition of 400 extra Sanitary officers, does not seem to have brought about any very entiefactory result. The total number of cases brought to light in the last twentyfour house amounts to only 148, and of these 47 have been taken to the Chinese Hospital yielding too readily to Chinese demands. and only one unfortunate man, who scems to be without any friends or relatives, was taken to the Happeia of Not a case, was taken to the European Hospital at Kennedy-town. The statistics for the twenty-four hours to noon to-day were as follow:-Hy- Hennedy Chinese To-gens. Town: City. Hospital, tall

Doethe Treatment ...21 A rough approximation gives the number of cases up to date at 393 and the number. of deaths at 320.

This afternoon a deputation of Ohinese, restricted in numbers to a dozen individuals, was received at Government House by H.E. Lookhart soled as interpreter. The deputatien again urged upon His Excellency the house-to-house visitation, and that sick Chinese should be afforded facility for leaving the Colony returning to their homes in the country. If the house-to-house visitation was to be continued they wished His Excellency an order that the women and the Chinese were not to be annoyed by the searchers as has been alleged within the last few days. His Excellency assumed a firm attitude towards the deputstion. He told them they were behaving very badly in attempting to put a stop to the measures the Government was taking in the interests of public health and on behalf of the interests of all residents in the Colony. Consideration had already been given to the wishes of the Chinese members of the community by allowing plague patients to be taken to a Hospital of their own, where they were tended exclusively by their own doctors. The house - to -house visitation could not be stopped, but must be insisted upon sanitary grounds. No restrictions whatever had been placed upon the Chinese in the matter of leaving the Colony. If they desired to do so, and could manage to get into China, they were at liberty to do so so far as the Hongkong Government was concerned. He appealed to the deputation fellow-countrymen to aid the Sanitary staff in its efforts to cope with the disease, instead of throwing obstacles in the way as they had been doing. A request that patients should be taken from the Hygeia | did this because your master had given you preach our religion. In vain we objected to the Chinese Hospital was also refused. The deputation then withdrew.

plague has occasioned does not seem to be abating. Indeed, all the indications from which it is possible to form an opinion show that, among the Chinese community, the scare is increasing. It would be unreasonable to say that there is absolutely no cause for this; but it may at least be said that the panic is greater than it need be. There is some talk of closing the schools in the colony-at least those schools in which there are Chinese pupils. The Head-Queen's College, we understand, has recommended the closing of - the large and important educational establishment under his charge. The same course seems to be considered advisable "as regards all the Chinese schools to the Western District where at least lifty per cent. of the scholars have been withdrawn. In Kowlonn many schools have already been closed. Many of the scholars have been sent by their anxious parents to the country and Chinese residents are leaving the Colony in large numbers. Serious as the state of things undoubtedly is, the scare is greatly out of proportion to the facts. The wildest and most extraordinary defendant was indebted to the firm in rumours prevail among the Chinese, and the irrational prejudice against the method pursued by European doctors in treating cases of plague seem to grow etforger every day.

Whereupon the Deputy Thang called out for a copy of the treaty to be produced. As the whole matter had been planned beforehand, the so-called treaty was conveniently at hand and turned out to be the famous Memorandum. The deputy of the Bishop objected to it as not having the consent of both parties. This produced a violent burst of indignation from Deputy Thang: staring at my companion as if he would devour him, he turned away exclaiming: 'By what rule would they have disputes settled if not by that document?" enforcing his words by dashing the iniquitous memorandum on the table. RUMOURED RESIGNATION OF A PRO-MINENT OHINESE OFFICIAL.

The Chinking correspondent of the N. C. Daily News says :- There seems to be sonsiderable excitement, at the present time of writing, amongst native official circles at this port, with reference to a rumour that has been gaining ground regarding the contemplated immediate retirement into private life of the recognised head of the Tso or Hunan political party, H.E. Liu K'un yi. Goverpor-General of the three provinces of Kiangen. Anhul, and Kiangel, and Superintendent of Trade for the Southern ports. Although this step has been known to have been contemplated since the winter of 1893, and especially since his recent illness, events, according to this rumour, have been precipitated, and the Vicercy will retire from official life in order to avoid a number of charges preferred against him by a certain Censor who seems to have found sufficient cause for laying his complaint against Llu K'nn-yi before the Dragon Table of the Emperor. The Throne could not well shelve the charges against this powerful satrap, and the least an edict of censure or possible degradation in rank, but with the privilege of retaining the post, will have to be promuigated by the Emperor.
